

► I can't afford my medications. Can I get them for less, or free?

Pharmacy Checker is an independent source of information on online and mail-order pharmacies. It publishes pharmacy ratings, profiles, and drug price comparisons online at www.pharmacychecker.com.

The Partnership for Prescription Assistance website (www.pparx.org) has information on over 150 pharmaceutical patient assistance programs which offer low-income, uninsured or underinsured patients free or low-cost medications.

RxAssist (www.rxassist.org) offers a comprehensive database assistance programs run by the pharmaceutical companies.

Needy Meds (www.needymeds.org) has information of medication assistance programs, including disease based assistance programs.

Some major retailers offer lower-cost medication:

Ralphs (<http://www.ralphs.com/pharmacy/Pages/default.aspx>)

Wal-Mart (www.walmart.com/pharmacy) and

Target (www.target.com) offer over 300 generic medications for $4 for a 30-day supply and $10 for a 3-month supply.

Costco (www.costco.com) also offers discounts via their prescription program to members who do not have insurance coverage available.

For your convenience, this list is sorted by drug category. Drugs are categorized based on their most common use and may be included in more than one category. Drugs are not categorized by all of their uses.

The Target $4 generic drug program information has been provided in cooperation with the Center for Consumer Self Care, UCSF Department of Clinical Pharmacy.
